Refund Policy

- Once your deposit is paid, should you wish to cancel at any time thereafter, the deposits are only refundable based on the cancellation penalties detailed below. It is strongly recommended that you have suitable cancellation insurance coverage from the time of booking.

25% refund if one cancels on or before March 10th, 2018

No refund if one cancels after March 10th, 2018

- The full balance for this trip is due by the 5th of February 2018. If the balance is not received by this specific date, we reserve the right to cancel your booking and your deposits will be forfeited, unless we had agreed to a different payment plan in writing or by email.

- Cancellation of a trip by the Organizers will entitle you to a refund of the full amount, unless cancellation has been forced by unforeseen circumstances such as government intervention, natural disasters, acts of terrorism, political unrest etc in which case actual costs incurred will be subtracted from any refund due. No other compensation will be allowable. We reserve the right to cancel any trip which does not have sufficient people taking part to make it financially viable.
- Cancellation of bookings must be notified in writing or by email. Cancellation charges are set out based on the date of receipt of written notification.
- Failure to provide vital documentation such as a passport, medical permission, signed Indemnity form and trip waiver will result in exemption from the trip. Provision of these documents is responsibility of the participant.
- Whilst every effort will be made to stick to the planned itinerary with this type of adventurous travel, changes to the itinerary may occur for which we accept no responsibility, however caused.
- We will make every effort to inform you of any change, when possible before departure. Final itinerary may differ in respect of the places where you stay overnight. We may alter your itinerary at short notice due to adverse weather, mountain conditions, client or leader illness, road conditions, operating conditions imposed by operators of accommodation, facilities, aircraft, and other forms of transport. Should such conditions involve clients in extra costs such as accommodation, transportation and meals, such costs should be borne by the client. We will have clear communication through-out this process.
- We will not be held responsible for any missed connecting transport that was booked independently. All flights booked by the individual are at their own risk and responsibility.
